

"I think my puppy is dominant aggressive."

Contributed by Barbara Brill
Wednesday, 12 May 2004
Last Updated Wednesday, 18 March 2009

Puppy aggressive to owner??

"A case of dominance aggression in the juvenile state (up to 26 weeks), in the author's opinion, should be considered to be more of a maladaptive defense mechanism than that of true dominance aggression."

Iain Macdonald in article "Inappropriate Aggressive Responses in Puppies." Read the full article here.
<http://tinyurl.com/37osun>

For more web links about dog' behaviors, click Resources above, then Web links, then the folder title Behavior.

For specific information to help with puppies nipping fingers and other normal yet new things to learn about puppies, visit the Start Puppy Training discussion group, here <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/spt>